

Week of July 14th, 2017

The New Era – The Parker School District has started construction on a new grandstand and press-box at their football stadium. The project is slated for completion by August 25th, the date of the first football game for the Pheasants.

Tea Weekly – Tea has hired Dan Zulkosky to serve as city administrator. He has twenty years of experience administering cities in Nebraska and Iowa, and was previously employed with the Lewis and Clark Regional Water System.

Sioux Valley News – Dakota Resources and the City of Canton are partnering to bring the Dakota Rising Rural Roadshow to town. The Roadshow seeks to motivate local entrepreneurs and to inform locals about the Dakota Rising Fellowship – a two year fellowship focusing on training entrepreneurs and connecting them with resources and important individuals.

SiouxFalls.Business – Gunway is a gun store north of Harrisburg. The veteran operated business prides itself on a more accessible experience and features firearms, ammunition, accessories, and access to a gunsmith. Gunway also features a rifle range, designed for both firearm use and an augmented reality system that simulates zombies, military targets and other scenarios. The organization hopes to offer safety courses in the future.

Tea Weekly – Tea Heritage Square will relocate to 135 Main Avenue, north of the Tea Steak House, on August 1st.
