Minnehaha Messenger – The Hartford Chamber of Commerce held the Second Annual Business in the Park event on Thursday July 27th. The event offered an opportunity for networking and gave Brad Berens, the new West Central School District superintendent, a chance to introduce himself to the community.

Tea Weekly – The success of the Tea School District bond issue has created greater interest in housing in that community. Housing developers around the new school's location expect to construct around 11 homes per year.

Lennox Independent – The Lennox Good Samaritan Center has received a five-star Nursing Home Compare Score rating. The five-star rating is reserved for those nursing homes in the top 10% of quality in South Dakota.

Brandon Valley Challenger – Gypsy Trading Company held a ribbon-cutting for their new location at 515 N. Splitrock Blvd. The store first opened in 2015 and sells home décor.

Sioux Falls Business – Century Custom Molding Inc., a Chinese plastic molding manufacturer, is expanding into Beresford. The organization is purchasing a 20,000 square foot facility in the Beresford Industrial Park with a $520,000 loan from the South Dakota Board of Economic Development.

Dell Rapids Tribune – The former First National Bank in downtown Dell Rapids has been purchased by Joe Bowar, who hopes to renovate the 128-year-old space into storefronts and apartments.
